MARQUETTE LEAGUE IS READY

President Edwards Calls Meeting of Managers for Friday.

New Grounds and Addition of Several Teams Add Strength to League.

Capt. Edwards, president of the Marquette Baseball League, has called a Myers... meeting of the managers of teams for Friday night in the National Guard Armory. At this time plans will be discussed for the coming season, and a committee will be appointed to adopt a schedule.

Those who have promised to attend are Ricketts John Lutish, formerly manager of the Totals ... old Aloysius Club, who will represent the Holy Name team; Nat Worley, who will pilot the St. Martin's nine; John Carroil, who will again look after the interest of the St. Paul team; A. Forester, who will make application for the admission of the fast St. Patrick's team; George Salb, who will probably manage the St. Joseph team; A. Fitzgerald, who is expected to make application for the admission of the lately organized Immaculate Conception nine, and A. D. Langley, who will look after the interest of the old St. Peter's team.

Last year the league experienced a very successful season, and with the addition of several strong teams to the roster, and with far better grounds available, the organization should prosper. The Immaculate Conception nine organized during the past week, and the Trinity team, which won the pennant in the Marquette League two years ago, should prove notable additions to the
